

European Union Poster Competition

Connections and Dialogues

The European Union and the Asia Pacific:
Perceptions, Policies, Perspectives

The European Union Studies Association of Asia-Pacific (EUSA-AP) is holding a digital poster competition for students in association with the upcoming International Conference to be held in New Delhi, India from the 8-9th of January 2010.

Posters should be on a research topic focusing on the European Union and/or the European Union's relationship with the Asia-Pacific region. A prize of €30 Amazon book vouchers will be awarded to the best student poster as judged by the EUCN Board. The competition is open to any student from any EUSA-AP or ASEAN member country*.

All posters need to be received by the 12th of January 2010. Posters must be emailed as a pdf file (maximum file size of 4MB) and will be displayed on the EUSA Asia Pacific website (www.eusaap.org.nz)

Please visit the website for more details on the conference.
